YOUNG MASTERS AT PLAY TODAY IN CV WHITNEY FINAL: AUDI VS. LECHUZA

AN EVENING TO REMEMBER

(ph Frederic Roy)

D. Wayne Lukas, Bob Baffert and Nick Zito delighted a sold out crowd Monday night at the 7th Chukker. With great lines and anecdotes from their illustrious careers, the three trainers made the case for their Thoroughbred Legends, an exclusive partnership raising between $60 and $100 million to buy and race the best horses they can find. Said Bob Baffert, "We're going to make a lot of noise. But it's not enough to have horses, you want to have fun."
