AN ALLIANCE GOODMAN/BELLISSIMO, IPC/WEP WILL CROWN WELLINGTON AS THE WORLD'S LEADING EQUESTRIAN DESTINATION WHILE BOOSTING GREATER PALM BEACH'S INFLUENCE

ith a joint release earlier this week, The International Polo Club Palm Beach (IPC) and the Wellington Equestrian Partners (WEP), host of the Winter Equestrian Festival (WEF), announced that they have come to an agreement, to work in partnership to promote, develop, and enhance the world class equestrian destination of Wellington, FL, the 30+ year-old community within Palm Beach County, Florida.

The announcement, carried out by Michael Stone, Executive Vice President of Equestrian Sports Production (ESP), the management company for WEP, and Angela Baker, IPC Vice-President for Marketing and Sales, also said that John Goodman, founder of the International Polo Club Palm Beach had become an investor in the WEP partnership joining the Partnership's Operating Committee which is reserved for its largest investors. The operating committee guides WEP's $230 million dollar Wellington investment. The Operating Committee currently con-Please turn to page 4 emi Finals of the Veuve Clicquot Gold Cup at Cowdray Park 16th July saw two world class matches on the famous Cowdray Lanes. Sunshine and showers were predicted, but a fine dry day saw a large audience witness a feast of polo with Dubai taking on Les Lions 2 in the first match of the Semi Finals and Sumaya face La Bamba de Areco in the second.

The world's No: 1 Adolfo Cambiaso played to the very top of his form for the Dubai side, which included Rashid Albwardy (0 goals) at the front, Martin Valent (4 goals) at 2 and Magoo Laprida (7 goals) at no: 3.

Working like a terrier all over the pitch, popping up in every direction to thwart Les Lion 2's attack, Cambiaso worked his magic for every minute of the match. Indeed his presence was so dominant that despite very strong play by the entire Les Lions 2 team, which included patron Max Gottschalk (1 goal), the mid-field combination of Agustin Merlos (9 goals) and his brother Sebastian Merlos (10 goals), and young South African Chris McKenzie (2 goals) at no: cundo, in Jean Francois Decaux's 1. Dubai ran out the winners on a final score of 16-9.

Sumaya, the last of the locally based teams of the 17 which had started on the quest for the Gold Cup, were the home crowd's favourites and took an early lead. Led by Ahmad Aboughazale, himself a very useful 1 goal player, and supported by the formidable combination of Hillario Ulloa (7 goals), Milo Fernandez Araujo (8 goals) and the South African Ignatius Du Plessis (6 goals), the side presented some problems for the 2 man dominance by the 10 goal Pieres brothers, Gonzalito and FaLa Bamba de Areco side.

But tenacity and focus in the second half saw La Bamba gradually even out the scores in what became a thrilling game.

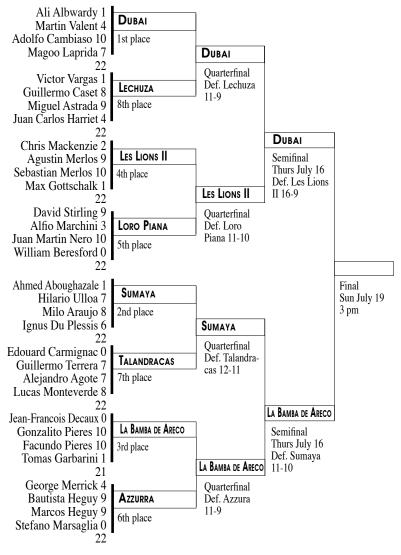

An unfortunate accident in the final chukka, however, saw Milo Fernandez Araujo forced to leave the field with a back injury, his place being taken by Lucas James.

A play in the final minute gave La Bamba de Areca the winning goal on a score of 11-10 and a place in Sunday's Final where they meet Dubai.

Over the last 30 years, the community of Wellington has created a unique 8,000 acre equestrian preserve that is home to thousands of horses and hundreds of horse farms. The community has become the de-facto winter home for worldwide equestrian sport. IPC, WEP and its affiliates own or control close to 1,000 acres within the preserve. Despite a challenging world economy, both organizations say they had successful years due to a very passionate and committed customer base of horse enthusiasts and sponsors.

WEP owns and operates the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center (PBIEC) home of the world-renowned Winter Equestrian Festival (WEF), the largest and longest running horse show in the world.

The annual WEF event draws thousands of exhibitors and over 5,000 horses, from 46 states, and 23 countries. These exhibitors compete for over $5.6 million dollars in prize money during the 12 week circuit. The WEF includes North America's only Nations Cup, the World Dressage Masters, and the FTI Consulting Grand Prix Challenge which is the richest evening in American Show Jumping awarding over $600,000 in prize money.

The Company operates close to 40 weeks worth of United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) licensed shows. In addition the company operates the Palm Beach Steeplechase which is becoming a Thanksgiving weekend tradition in Wellington.

The International Polo Club Palm Beach is the leading polo facility in the United States, and home of the U.S. Open Polo Championship ™ since 2004.

For sixteen weeks each winter, IPC's Winter Polo Season attracts the highest ranking competitors from around the globe, who flock to Wellington, to play at the highest level the sport has to offer.

IPC has also integrated polo events into its affiliated property, the Wanderers Golf Club of Wellington, a private course that reopened in 2008 after a renovation completed by Jacobsen Hardy Golf Designs.

The Polo, Show Jumping, and Dressage worlds have operated independently within Wellington for over 30 years and now for the first time will be working together to promote Wellington as an equestrian destination. WEP will target their main PBIEC events on Saturday evening, while IPC will target their Sunday Polo tournaments. While the two groups are committed to promoting the equestrian destination locally, nationally and internationally, they are also committed to working with the Village of Wellington and its residents to preserve and integrate the equestrian lifestyle elements that have made Wellington a distinctive and unique residential community.

the shows stated, "John and our partnership have always shared a common vision, however, we have not coordinated our efforts. We are excited to be finally working together towards a common goal of making Wellington the premiere equestrian lifestyle destination in the world. It is a very exciting time for this community and our respective sports."

John Goodman added, "I believe a partnership between IPC and WEP has been a long time coming. While Wellington is one of the greatest equestrian environments in the world, our joint efforts will raise Wellington to a new level."

There is no doubt that the equestrian business has become the leading trade/industry for Wellington. The strong alliance between the two main business operators of the trade, if managed carefully, is likely to foster a new growth period. With a Village of Wellington now built up at 96% of its capacity and only scarce raw land available for equestrian purpose, one can expect an expansion in Palm Beach County and beyond. And the County's real improvement of road works of the last few years should help that expansion.

STORM RAMO WINS FOR JOHN FULTON AT THE PALERMO RACETRACK IN BUENOS AIRES

torm Ramo, winning his 8th race with leading rider Pablo Falero last weekend at the Palermo Racetrack which is located across the street from the Palermo Polo Stadium in Buenos Aires. John Fulton said his horse "had just turned five on July 1st. He has won four times this year and eight overall and has been in the top three 14 out of the 22 times he raced."

John, who was trained for George Steinbrenner earlier in his career and now buys horses for top owners around the world, said that he bought Storm Ramo as a yearling with his racing partner Antonio Bullrich, adding "He has given us a lot of enjoyment. He's a tough old character who has a big heart. He has some rough ankles but he gives his best every time he runs and is just a cut below the top horses. He finished 4th in a GR1."
