Polo at a Glance

2012 Cartier Queen's Cup at Guards Polo Club.

Les Lions def. Belmont Farm 11-7 (League Four) (played Wednesday)

Experience won out when Joachim Gottschalk's Les Lions team, one of the most experienced high-goal teams in the 2012 Cartier Queen's Cup, defeated the newcomers Belmont Farm 11-7. However it started very differently with Belmont Farm 1-0 up at the end of the first seven minutes thanks to a goal from Ryan Pemble. Les Lions slowly got into their stride in the second, with goals from the sibling duo Agustin and Sebastian Merlos. However Belmont Farm kept the upper hand with goals from Satnam Dhillon, Malcolm Borwick and George Meyrick.

The emphasis changed in the third though. It was Belmont Farm's turn not to score while the Merlos duo added three more to Les Lions' tally, giving them a precious one goal advantage (5-4) at half-time. Only one goal apiece in the fourth meant that this game was still wide open, but goals from Agustin and Matt Perry in the fifth, to only one in reply from Dhillon meant that Les Lions, finalists in last year's British Open Championships, were pulling away, albeit slowly. But when Agustin scored a hat-trick in the final chukka, the writing was on the wall for Belmont Farm. Borwick did score the final goal of the match though and Belmont Farm, although disappointed not to win, should be proud of their debut in the Cartier Queen's Cup and will have gained plenty of experience, essential for their next game – against Dubai – on Tuesday 29 May.

Salkeld def. Sumaya 14-11 (played Thursday)

Nick Clarke's Salkeld (rec 1 goal on handicap) defeated Sumaya 14-11 after an exciting League Three game at Coworth Park this afternoon. Sumaya were leading 3-2 at the end of the first after a double from Javier Novillo Astrada plus another from Matias Vial. James Beim put one on the boards for Salkeld before the first bell rang but this first chukka belonged to the red shirts of Sumaya. Beim and his England team-mate Luke Tomlinson turned things around in the second though, taking Salkeld's score to 5 at the end of this chukka, at the same time as Sumaya failed to score at all. Salkeld continued to dominate the match in the third, with goals from Beim and Jose Donoso, while Sumaya's Vial was the only scorer for Ahmad Abooghazale's team. This gave Salkeld a commanding 8-4 lead going into half-time and an advantage they never relinquished.

The fourth saw two goals apiece for each team, but then three goals in quite quick succession for Salkeld in the fifth confirmed Nick Clarke's team's dominance in this match and it was all Sumaya could do to keep within reach. Despite three further goals from Vial and Facundo Sola in the final chukka, to only one in reply from Beim, the damage had already been inflicted earlier in the game and Salkeld join El Remanso at the top League Three.

Two games tomorrow:

League Two: Enigma v Piaget at Guards Polo Club at 3pm

League One: EFG Bank Aravali v Ayala at Manor Farm, Sussex at 3pm.

The Memorial by Piaget, at Grand Champions Polo Club in Wellington, starts tomorrow Friday with two round-robin at 12:30 and 3 pm, the games played tomorrow at Palm City in Boca after heavy rain fell on Wellington the last 2 days.
