JOE BARRY CUP FINAL TODAY AT 3

Today's game is the final of the Joe Barry Memorial Tournament that has been played since 2005 in tribute to polo great H. A. "Joe" Barry. Joe was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the Museum of Polo in 1999, recognized as a truly legendary player of the sport. Born and raised in Texas, Joe was a member of one of the power-house families that have dominated polo. He is still fondly remembered not only as one of the most important players of his day, but for being kind, friendly and "having a smile that came straight from his heart." Sadly, Joe died of a heart attack on May 18th, 2002 when he was just 58. His plaque at the Museum reads:

Harold A. Barry - Elected to the Museum of Polo Hall of Fame, February 26, 1999

In the tradition of the Barry excellence, Harold "Joe" Barry, a galloping oak tree with the soul of a poet, took his place in the forefront of American polo. An impenetrable Back at 9-goals, no one could hit a longer ball or provide a more reliable presence.

Soft spoken off the field and ever the gentleman on the field, polo has no better role model than Joe. A horseman practically from birth, his talents with them are renowned - a chip off the old block.

As an internationalist, he played twice on the U.S.A. squad in the Cup of the Americas, and brought home the Coronation and Camacho Cup trophies. Six U.S. Open Championships, three Gold Cups, three Silver Cups, two Butler Handicaps

The trophy used for this tournament is a bronze that is a recreation of an iconic moment from the World Cup in 1979 when Joe was captured in a photo kneeling on the field with his faithful mount Alabama standing over him. Alabama a two time Hartman Award winner was also inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2003.

Polo! Get Into the Game © - Ladies Women's Luxury Polo Clinics in Paradise

Lizzy Beer is offering two week-long polo clinics for Ladies, the first one in Costa Careyes Resort & Polo Club in Mexico the week of Feb 2nd to the 8th, ran by Susan Stovall (susanstovall@careyes.com.mx) (52) 315-351-0320) and herself, the other one at Casa de Campo, Dominican Republic the week of Feb 16th to the 22nd, ran by Cali Garcia Velez (cgvpolo@mac.com) and herself.

Ladies have the choice of a 2-day clinic with full instruction, no full games. Or a 4-day clinic with the two days of custom instruction, then two days of coached four chukker games. There are two levels of play, "Safe & Smart" and "Strategy & Competition."

Rates are the same for both weeks, $200 per day for the clinic, $500 per coaching game. Hotel rates begin at $150 per night. Both resorts offer a complete vacation with your friends & family – beach, restaurant, spa, shooting, watersports, golf, and tennis, all on site as well and local towns to discover!
