CARLOS GRACIDA CUP - SEMIFINALS &amp; SUBS. FINAL, TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 2018

Three big games yesterday in the Carlos Gracida Cup. The first one between Co-ca-Cola led Prestige Worldwide by one or 2 goals to win 9-7.

The second game was played on the very fast field #5 at IPC, playing on all four cylinders La Indiana was in the lead by a goal or two most of the game, Michael Bickford scoring 3 very nice goals in the 2nd and third.

Pilot had a superb fifth chukker, especially Gonzalito Pieres who had already scored an amazing goal beating the short time left at the end an earlier chukker. This time to start the fifth, He shot a pass to himself to the right of goal and finished with an amazing tail shot at the deepest angle for 7-all. Matt Coppola scored after Torito Ruiz converted a penalty to keep the score even at 8, and finally Gonzalito Pieres had another wonderful play and cut shot for the lead 9-8. Two fouls cost Pilot the win, both converted by Facundo Obregon for La Indiana's win 10-9.

A very exciting subsidiary final to the Carlos Gracida Cup in the afternoon between Goose Creek and Horseware, the teams traded the lead a few times, Goose Creek ahead 9-7 in the fourth on 3 unanswered goals, Tom MacGuinness with a goal to open the sixth for 9-8, Horseware, Peke Gonzalez with the insurance goal, Sebastian Merlos with the last word, Horseware short of tying back, La Indiana the winner 10-9.
